Teacher of Secondary Mathematics: Job Description

Post

- Teacher of Mathematics in the secondary age range

Purpose of the Job

- To teach students within the school at secondary age range and to carry out such other associated duties as are reasonably assigned by the Executive Head Teacher and Head of Secondary.

Functional Relationships

- The post-holder is responsible to the Executive Head Teacher and Head of Secondary in all matters, and to the Head of Faculty for Enterprise in respect of day-to-day curricular matters. The post-holder also interacts on a professional level with colleagues and will seek to establish and maintain productive relationships with them and to promote mutual understanding of the school aims with the purpose of improving the quality of teaching and learning in the school.

Responsibilities

The particular responsibilities attaching to the post of Teacher of Mathematics in the secondary age range are as follows:

Curriculum:

- To plan and prepare courses.
- To continuously review teaching methods, schemes of work and resources as necessary.
- To advise and co-operate with the line-manager, other teachers and the Senior Leadership Team on the preparation and development of courses of study, teaching materials and resources, teaching programmes, methods of teaching, assessment and pastoral arrangements.
- To participate in meetings of the school which relate to the curriculum for the school or the administration or organisation of the school, including pastoral arrangements.
- To take part as required in the review, development and management of activities relating to the curriculum, organisation and pastoral functions of the school.

Teaching:

- To teach, according to their educational needs, students assigned in the allocated classes
- To teach the students assigned to the teacher (according to their educational needs) and to set and mark work to be carried out by the students, in school or elsewhere.
- To provide or contribute to oral and written assessments, reports and references relating to individual students and groups of students.
- To implement whole school academic policies.
- To maintain high levels of student behaviour for learning, in accordance with the rules and disciplinary systems of the school, and of the Faculty.
- To control and oversee the use and storage of all resources provided for class use, including books
- To contribute to Faculty meetings, discussions and management systems necessary to coordinate the work of the Faculty and integrate this into the work of the school as a whole, in seeking to achieve school aims and targets
- To promote safeguarding, student well-being and equal opportunities within the school and to seek to ensure the implementation of the school's equal opportunities policy in keeping with the Equality Act 2010

Activities related to teaching

- To promote the general progress and well-being of individual students and of any class or group of students assigned to the teacher.
- To provide guidance and advice to students on educational and social matters and on their further education and future careers, including information about sources of more expert advice on specific questions; making relevant records and reports.
- To make records of, and reports on, the personal and social needs of students.
- To communicate and consult with the parents of students.

- To communicate and co-operate with persons or bodies outside the school.
- To attend and present reports at Governors' meetings if required.
- To participate in meetings arranged for any of the purposes described above.

Review: further training and professional development

- To review methods of teaching and programmes of work; and
- To participate in any arrangement within an agreed national framework for the performance management of performance and that of other teachers.
To participate in arrangements for further training and professional development as a teacher.

Educational methods

- To advise and co-operate with the Head of Secondary and other teachers on the preparation and development of courses of study, teaching materials, teaching programmes, methods of teaching and assessment, and pastoral arrangements.

Discipline, health and safety

- To maintain good order and discipline among the students and safeguard their health and safety, both when they are authorised to be on the school premises and when they are engaged in authorised school activities elsewhere.

Staff meetings

- To participate in meetings at the school which relate to the curriculum for the school or the administration or organisation of the school, including pastoral arrangements.

Covering for absent colleagues

- To rarely supervise / teach any students whose teacher is not available.

Public examinations

- To participate in arrangements for (i) preparing students for public examinations and (ii) assessing students for the purposes of such examinations.
- To record and report such assessments; and
- To participate in arrangements for students' presentation for, and supervision during, such examinations.

Whole School

- Most staff are responsible, as Form Tutors, for the academic progress and pastoral welfare of a small group of students.
- Most staff attend assemblies, register the attendance of students and supervise students, whether these duties are to be performed before, during or after school sessions.
- All teaching staff are expected to contribute to the extra-curricular life of the school by offering an activity or participating in the supervision of student preparation.
- All staff are expected to participate in whole-school and out-of-school activities as reasonably required.

This job description will be reviewed annually and may be subject to amendment or modification at any time after consultation with the post holder. It is not a comprehensive statement of procedures and tasks but sets out the main expectations of the school in relation to the post holder's professional responsibilities and duties, including the provision of high-quality teaching and learning and the safeguarding, well-being and care of students.

Elements of this job description and changes to it may be negotiated at the request of either the Executive Head Teacher or the incumbent of the post, and it should be noted that the post-holder is expected to carry out such duties as may reasonably be required by the Executive Head Teacher or Head of Secondary from time to time.
