Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests)

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the school's use of your data.

Collecting this information

While the majority of information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

How we store this data

Personal data is stored in line with our Data Protection Policy and Records Management Schedule.

We create and maintain an employment file for each staff member. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your employment.

Once your employment with us has ended, we will retain this file and delete the information in it in accordance with our Records Management Schedule. A copy of the school's Records Management Schedule is available on request from the School Office.

Your rights

How to access personal information we hold about you

Individuals have a right to make a Subject Access Request to gain access to personal information that the school holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- give you a description of it;
- tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for;
- explain where we got it from, if not from you;
- tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with;
- let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this; and
- give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form.

Individuals are entitled to submit Subject Access Requests all year round, but please bear in mind that it may be necessary for the school to extend the response period when requests are submitted over the summer holidays or where the deadline for a response falls within the summer holidays. This is in accordance with article 12(3) of the GDPR, and will be the case where the request is complex - for example, where we need multiple staff to collect the data due to term-time contracts.

Individuals also have the right for their personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

If you would like to make a request, please use our Subject Access Request Template Letter.

Your other rights regarding your data

Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe, including the right to:

- object to the use of personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress;
- prevent it being used to send direct marketing;
- object to decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person);
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing;
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations.

To exercise any of these rights, please contact our data protection officer.

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.
